

Here is an example for images of light:

- Quote

“What light through yonder window breaks?” (Act II, ii,2)

- Context

Romeo sees Juliet at her window.

- Significance

Romeo was “in the dark” with Rosaline; she made life sad and dreary. He moves into the light with Juliet, who brightens the world with her beauty.

Here is an example for images of dark:

- Quote

“What man art thou that thus bescreened in night so stumbles on my counsel?” (II, 2, 52-53).

- Context

Juliet discovers a man’s been listening to her secret thoughts.

- Significance

Romeo is moving to the light of true love. Juliet can’t see him clearly yet because they haven’t shared their love for one another.
